

Superstar Rey Mysterio®

Since a child growing up in San Diego, Rey Mysterio always aspired to be a Superstar. As a young teenager, he followed his dreams by starting to train in the Mexican Lucha Libre style of wrestling in Tijuana leading him to an even bigger stage - first in ECW and then WCW. Upon his WWE debut in 2002 on SmackDown, Mysterio continued his hot streak of memorable matches, setting his eyes on capturing the Cruiserweight Championship

Reading's for wimps isn't it?	"No! Reading is for positive people, it's inspiring and educational."
What inspired you to become a reader?	"The Bible, because it is full of wonderful stories."
For some people a family member or particular author inspired them to read. Who would be your all time Reading Champion and why?	"My whole family, but my mother was my main inspiration."
What difference would it make if everybody enjoyed reading?	"I think the world would be more creative and more imaginative. It would make it more quiet too..."
What are your top five reads of all time?	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Bible 2. Hop on Pop - Dr Seuss 3. Are We There Yet? - Robert Caprio 4. Harry Potter 5. Cat In The Hat - Dr Seuss